Matt Albon-Crouch

Food and Drink Attaché

British Embassy Viet Nam

Infrastructure and Environment

Ü

Crown Estate Scotland Oighreachd a' Chrùin Albr

Marine Management isation

Exploiting Potential New Markets for Shellfish

Matthew Albon-Crouch, Agriculture, Food and Drink Attaché to Vietnam, Indonesia and Singapore

Department for Environment, Food & Rural Affairs (Defra)

Department for Environment Food & Rural Affairs

What do Agri-food Attachés do?

Broaden market access for agri-food products, identify and remove SPS barrier and technical barriers to trade (e.g. certification, labelling, registration processes). Mitig follow incide with r

Mitigate risks to current trade (e.g. following public or animal health incidents or ensuring compliance with new import requirements).

Provide a key delivery mechanism international strategy objectives.

for Defra's agri-food and

Develop networks to share approaches to challenges, implementation of new regulatory measures and identify best practice. Monitor and feed back market intelligence, demand trends and future regulatory changes.

Support businesses to establish and grow in market.

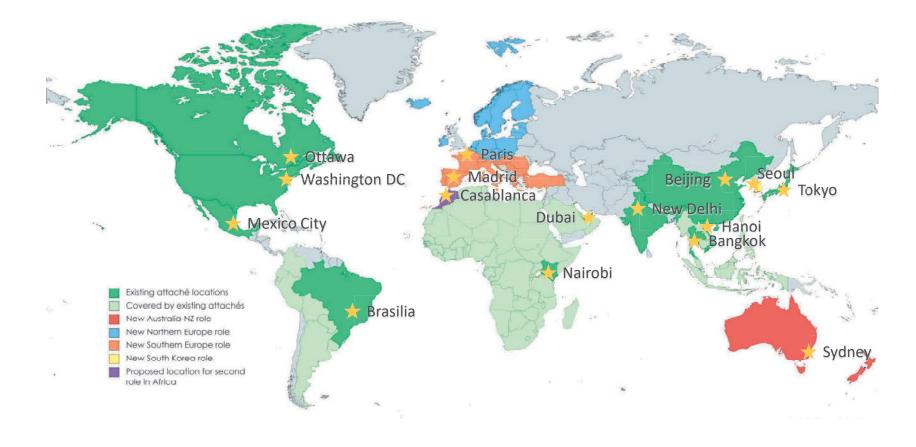

Support engagement and visits from ministers, CVO/CPO/CSO and senior officials

Identify opportunities in the market to showcase UK food and drink.

Defra Agri-Attaché Network Reach

Text in footer

OFFICIAL

Department for Environment Food & Rural Affairs

Vietnam – Indonesia – Singapore Demographic & Economic Overviews

Vietnam

- Rapidly emerging middle class, 13% in 2023, >50% by 2025.
- 2023 GDP 13x larger than in 2000, GDP per caita increased more than 10x during this period.
- Seafood trade relationship already established, with Vietnam exporting $300b to UK in 2023.
- Vietnamese seafood consumption 37kg per person p/a, the highest in S-E Asia.
- Modest UK shellfish import relationship already established.

Indonesia

- Also a rapidly expanding middle class, relocating from rural to urban lifestyles bringing exposure to international foods.
- Rapid growth of modern retail channels in recent years.
- 4th largest grocery market in Asia, and 75% of foodconsumption value is from imported products.
- Shellfish imports in excess of $200m p/a.
- Seafood consumption per person c.6.2kg p/a.

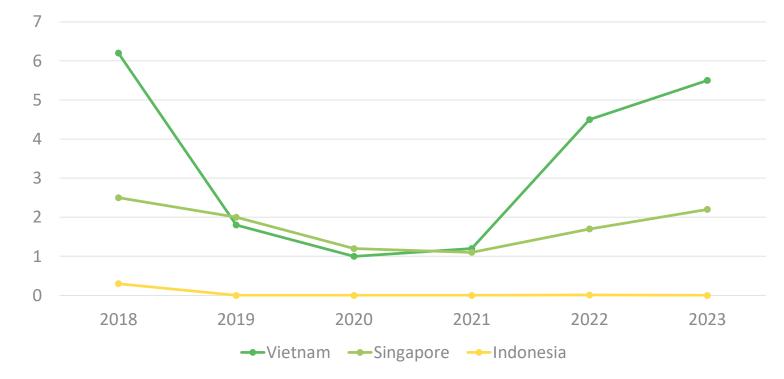

Singapore

- Consistently falls within the global top 5 GDP per capita.
- Modest UK shellfish import relationship already established
- Consumer prices in Singapore anywhere between 10-30% higher than UK; can command higher prices for shellfish.

Shellfish Exports

Value of UK Shellfish Exports to Vietnam, Singapore and Indonesia 2018 – 2023 (£m)

Department for Environment Food & Rural Affairs

Vietnam Trade Opportunities

OFFICIAL

Highlights

- UK Vietnam FTA signed in 2020, majority of shellfish tariffs 0% or reducing to 0%.
- Stable alternative to China
- Carcass balance benefits
- Geographical Indication (GI) Products

Market entry pointers

- Working with reputable importer crucial
- Work with DBT/DEFRA/BE Hanoi
- Consider live exports
- Adventurous marketing strategies

Indonesia Trade Opportunities

Highlights

- Largely low shellfish tariffs •
- Seafood is the most popular meat consumed ٠
- Shrimp in particular viewed as a premium product •

Market entry pointers

- Sourcing a specialist seafood importer and • distributor (DBT can help).
- Work with DBT/DEFRA/BE Jakarta ٠
- Focus on health and environmental benefits of your ٠ product(s)
- Consider cultural/religious opportunities •

Singapore Trade Opportunities

Highlights

- High price point
- Ease of doing business
- Largely 0% tariffs
- British shellfish perfectly matched to Singaporean cuisine
- Regional export hub

Market entry pointers

- Large British contact base
- Focus on retail
- Work with importer

Text in footer

OFFICIAL

HMG Sector Support

- Seafood Export Package first tranche 2022-2025.
- Since the package was launched it has delivered:
 - UK pavilions at 7 Seafood Expos including: Seafood Expo Global (Barcelona, Spain), Seafood Expo North America (Boston, USA), Seafood Expos in Qingdao, China and Tokyo, Japan.
 - 5 meet the buyer trade missions /activities with China, UAE, Thailand and Brazil
 - and the recruitment of 3 specialists in the UK, USA and China.
- In May 2023 at the Farm to Fork Summit the Seafood Export Package was extended from 2025-2028 with additional £1m funding.
- DBT International Trade Advisers (ITAs)
- DBT Export Support Service (ESS): In market business matching guidance and market insight

Department for Environment Food & Rural Affairs OFFICIAL

Questions?

54th Annual Conference

Shellfish Association of Great Britain

#SAGB54